

Bertoia's December Holiday Auction will Feature Christmas, Halloween, Schoenhut, Automata and More

VINELAND, N.J. – On Thursday, December 10th, Bertoia Auctions will open its gallery doors to reveal a breathtaking winter wonderland of holiday season treasures, to include Christmas items, including exquisite German Santas; belsnickels, reindeer and nodders; Santa Claus board games; tree ornaments, to include Dresdens, cottons and early glass; a fine grouping of Schoenhut toys, to include Teddy Roosevelt, animals, circus figures and wagons; a nice selection of automata; and other sought-after toys that once awaited children on Christmas morning.

Additionally, the auction will include other types of early holiday collectibles, such as a wonderful collection of whimsical Halloween pumpkins and characters, featuring vegetable people, jack-o-lanterns and Halloween die-cuts; and Easter offerings, to include a rabbit nodder holding baby rabbits, a patriotic Uncle Sam rabbit, and unique papier mâché candy containers.
